

Surviving Abuse

and Becoming a Seventh-day Adventist

with Pam McCrohan

Pam will share her remarkable and uplifting personal testimony of how God has rescued her from an abusive past that included spiritualistic/occultist influences and how God has led her to appreciate the end time message of Adventism and the importance of Ellen White in being the lesser light that leads us to the greater light.

When: August 18th, starting 4:00pm

Venue: Steps to Life, 15 Industrial Park Dve, Lilydale.

No bookings required. A light meal will be served between presentations. A freewill retiring offering will be collected to help defray expenses.
